City of Irvine Volunteering Guide

Animal Care and Shelter

Animal shelter volunteers provide animals love, attention, and training. They perform tasks that assist City staff, customers, and most importantly shelter pets. The Junior Volunteer Program (15-17 years old) and Adult Volunteer Program (18 years or older) require completion of a volunteer orientation and a minimum time commitment of 8 hours per month for the first six months. Other volunteer opportunities include animal training and socialization, pet foster care, fundraising, and assisting with special events.

Community Emergency Response Team (CERT)

CERT is a group of responsible individuals (18 years or older) trained to serve as Disaster Service Workers in their neighborhoods, businesses and schools in the event of a major disaster. CERT volunteers help themselves and their neighbors until professional emergency responders arrive. The training program provides interactive discussions, hands-on training and valuable information on

- 1) General Disaster Operations,
- 2) Disaster Medical Operations,
- 3) Fire Suppression,
- 4) Light Search and Rescue, and
- 5) Disaster Psychology and Team Organization.

High School Youth Action Team (HSYAT)

Influence decisions that affect the lives of your peers and the community. HSYAT offers numerous teen volunteer opportunities in leadership roles, community service and social-recreational activities for teens throughout the school year. HSYAT has volunteered with organizations such as Rebuilding Together, Habitat for Humanity, Families Forward, Orangewood Children's Home, Shade Tree Partnership, and many more. Contact HSYAT Advisor: 949-724-6643 or HSYAT@cityofirvine.org

Irvine Fine Arts Center

Put your creative ideas and talents to work in new ways. The Irvine Fine Arts Center welcomes volunteers (18 years of age or older) in the Photography Darkroom, Ceramics, and Jewelry Studios. All potential volunteers must have previous experience and knowledge of applicable studio equipment.

Contact studio technicians: 949-724-6880

Like working with kids? The Youth Program has seasonal volunteer opportunities (15 years or older) available at the Irvine Fine Arts Center.

Contact Marie Dalton: 949-724-6880 or mdalton@cityofirvine.org

The volunteer opportunities listed here benefit the community in a variety of ways. Whether you're looking to enhance your resume or just do something good, these groups need your help.

Irvine Disaster Emergency Communications (IDEC)

Under the Irvine Police Department, licensed Amateur Radio operators volunteer their radio communication skills and technical expertise in support of the City's emergency preparedness and response plans. In the event of a disaster, IDEC volunteers establish an emergency communications network between the Irvine Police Department, citywide public facilities, hospitals, and other critical locations where normal means of communications have failed. IDEC volunteers participate in disaster drills and community service events to hone their skills and emergency response functions. IDEC volunteers must be 18 years or older.

Contact Sergeant Robert Warren: 949-724-7015, extension 4601 or rwarren@cityofirvine.org

Neighborhood Watch

Resident volunteers work together with the Police Department to protect their neighborhoods against crime. Neighborhood Watch duties include arranging for a home security survey, practicing operation identification, exchanging identification with neighbors, reporting crimes and suspicious activity to the police, and participating in passive patrol in your neighborhood. Orange County Great Park Ambassador Program

This program helps teens develop leadership and public speaking skills, as well as practical work experience. Our Ambassadors have an opportunity to learn about the Great Park and serve as:

- 1) Presenters: making presentations to businesses and community groups to provide information and updates on the progress of the Great Park,
- 2) Preview Park Docents: engage Great Park Balloon visitors in conversation and impromptu tours of the Preview Park, and 3) Special Event Staff: act as support staff to provide general assistance at such events as the Festival of Flight, Night Flights concerts and dance parties, and Great Park Pumpkin Harvest. This program is expected to resume in the spring. The Great Park also seeks one-day volunteers for special events. Contact Sheila Goodbrand at 949-724-7410 or sgoodbrand@ocgp.org

Police Explorers

The Explorers Program provides a unique opportunity for high school aged young adults to investigate and explore a career in law enforcement. Participants volunteer at a variety of community events and provide public services ranging from traffic control to fingerprinting. After volunteers complete a five-day training academy, they are invited to participate in monthly patrol ride-alongs and presentations from detectives, K-9 handlers, DUI enforcement officers, SWAT, crime scene investigators, Orange County helicopter operations, traffic and patrol.
