Jeffrey Lalloway

Jeffrey Lalloway, elected to the Irvine City Council in November 2010, is a father, husband, attorney, businessman, and proud Irvine resident. After graduating in 1986 with highest honors from Rutgers University in New Brunswick, New Jersey with a Bachelor of Arts in political science, Jeffrey attended Villanova University School of Law. While at Villanova Law School, he was a member of the prestigious Law Review and was a recipient of the Law Alumni Award. In 1989, he graduated from Villanova Law School at the top of his class.

After many years as an attorney in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Jeffrey moved his practice to Irvine. He currently practices family law in Orange County. His commentaries on financial and economic issues have been featured in magazines and newspapers including Time, People, USA Today, and the Daily Breeze. Prior to going into private practice, Jeffrey worked in the Philadelphia office of the U.S. Attorney.

Jeffrey and his wife Laura are the proud parents of two beautiful daughters, Regan, age 11, and Sydney, a 7-year-old. Laura Lalloway is a Medical Science Liaison with a Fortune 500 medical and consumer products company.

Currently, Jeffrey is Vice Chairman of the Board of Directors of the Orange County Transportation Authority, and serves as a member of the Executive Committee of the Board of Directors of the Orange County Fire Authority. Jeffrey is an active cyclist and raises funds and awareness for ALS, Lou Gehrig's disease. Previously, Jeffrey served as Vice Chairman of the Irvine Finance Commission.

In his spare time, Jeffrey is the assistant coach for his daughter's softball team and enjoys sharing the Indian Princess experiences with his girls.

The Lalloway family has also opened their home to two pugs, Sammy and Rocky.
